Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

Prayer for the Morning

The Lord has given us bread from heaven:

Let us give thanks and praise!

Glory to the Father...Amen. Alleluia

Hymn

Meter: CM

Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless
Your chosen pilgrim flock
With manna in the wilderness,
With water from the rock.
We would not live by bread alone,
But by your word of grace,
In strength of which we travel on
To our abiding place.
Lord, sup with us in love divine;
Your Body and your Blood,
That living bread, that heav'nly wine,
Be our immortal food.

Psalm 105:1-5, 8-11, 40-43

I would feed my people with finest wheat/ and fill them with honey from the rock. (cf. Ps 81:17)

When we eat this bread and drink this cup, we ourselves enter into the Lord's Passover journey from death to life.

Give thanks to the Lord, tell his name,
make known his deeds among the peoples.
O sing to him, sing his praise;
tell all his wonderful works!
Be proud of his holy name,
let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice.
Consider the Lord and his strength;
constantly seek his face.
Remember the wonders he has done,
his miracles, the judgments he spoke.
He remembers his covenant for ever,
his promise for a thousand generations,
the covenant he made with Abraham,
the oath he swore to Isaac.
He confirmed it for Jacob as a law,
for Israel as a covenant for ever.
He said: "I am giving you a land,
Canaan, your appointed heritage."
When they asked for food he sent quails;
he filled them with bread from heaven.
He pierced the rock to give them water;
it gushed forth in the desert like a river.
For he remembered his holy word,
which he gave to Abraham his servant.

So he brought out his people with joy,
his chosen ones with shouts of rejoicing.

Glory to the Father...

Word of God John 6:47-51

Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.

For you we hunger; for you we thirst!

Canticle of Zechariah

When we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim your death, Lord Jesus Christ, and your rising to eternal life! (cf. Memorial Acclamations)

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; he has come to his people and set them free. He has raised up for us a mighty savior, born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets he promised of old that he would save us from our enemies, from the hands of all who hate us. He promised to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham: to set us free from the hands of our enemies, free to worship him without fear, holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life.

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way, to give his people knowledge of salvation by the forgiveness of their sins. In the tender compassion of our God the dawn from on high shall break upon us, to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory to the Father...

Intercessions
