Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Prayer for the Morning

Who seeks Christ will find Christ:
let us give thanks and praise.

Glory to the Father...

Hymn Meter: LM

O Christ our King, supreme in power,
The Father's glory and delight
Our fallen nature you restored,
By dying you defeated death.
Increase in us the life of grace
That when as Bridegroom you return,
With lamps well trimmed we be prepared
To follow you at once with joy.
Receive us as a judge serene
Into the realms of peace and light,
Whom faith and love have bound to you,
Adoring your great Trinity.

Canticle Ephesians 1:3, 7-10

Whoever watches for wisdom at dawn shall not be disappointed. (cf. Wis 6:14)

The wise virgins seek Christ, who is the wisdom of God. Today's readings urge us to seek Christ at all costs and to be prepared for the joy of finding him, the source of all wisdom, at unexpected moments and in unexpected places.

Praised be the God and Father
of our Lord Jesus Christ,
who has bestowed on us in Christ
every spiritual blessing in the heavens.
In him and through his blood, we have been redeemed,
and our sins forgiven,
so immeasurably generous
is God's favor to us.
God has given us the wisdom
to understand fully the mystery,
the plan he was pleased to decree in Christ.
A plan to be carried out
in Christ, in the fullness of time,
to bring all things into one in him,
in the heavens and on earth.

Glory to the Father

Word of God

Wisdom 7:10

Beyond health and comeliness I loved her,/ And I chose to have her rather than the light,/ because the splendor of her never yields to sleep.

Those who love me I also love,/ and those who seek me find me. (Prv 8:17)

Canticle of Zechariah

When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart. (Jer 29:13)

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; he has come to his people and set them free. He has raised up for us a mighty savior, born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets he promised of old that he would save us from our enemies, from the hands of all who hate us. He promised to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham:
to set us free from the hands of our enemies, free to worship him without fear, holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life.

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way, to give his people knowledge of salvation by the forgiveness of their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God the dawn from on high shall break upon us, to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory to the Father...

Intercessions

Wisdom is as wisdom does. Let us pray to the source of wisdom to make us wise:

R/Grant us wisdom of heart.

You are present always and everywhere: grant that we may seek and find you in all things. R/

You are the peace at the heart of all quarrels:
grant that we may seek and find you as the source of reconciliation. R/

You are the light in the midst of all darkness: grant that we may seek and find you as we struggle to make right decisions. R/ Personal intentions

Our Father....

O God of wisdom, you call us to keep watch for the coming of Christ. Grant us the wisdom to await him, to recognize him in his coming, and to prefer him above all else, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Mass

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1

Wisdom 6:12-16

Resplendent and unfading is wisdom,/ and she is readily perceived by those who love her,/ and found by those who seek her./ She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of their desire;/ whoever watches for her at dawn shall not be disappointed,/ for he shall find her sitting by his gate./ For taking thought of wisdom is the perfection of prudence,/ and whoever for her sake keeps vigil/ shall quickly be free from care;/ because she makes her own rounds, seeking those -worthy of her,/ and graciously appears to them in the ways,/ and meets them with all solicitude.”

Reading 2

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

[For the shorter form (4:13-14), omit the text in brackets.]

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep. [Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words.]

Gospel

Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus told his disciples this parable: “The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, brought no oil with them, but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps. Since the bridegroom was long delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep. At midnight, there was a cry, ‘Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’ Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish ones said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.’ But the wise ones replied, ‘No, for there may not be enough for us and you. Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.’ While they went off to buy it, the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. Then the door was locked. Afterwards the other virgins came and said, ‘Lord, Lord, open the door for us!’ But he said in reply, ‘Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.’ Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour.”

Men of St. Joseph Prayer

St. Joseph, help me to be like you. Help me to be obedient to the teachings of the Church and faithful to God’s commands. Help me to patiently endure my cross each day. Let me be a model of holiness and a pillar of virtue. I solemnly promise to embrace God’s will and I accept the challenge to work tirelessly for my family’s salvation. Be my guide and companion on this journey. St. Joseph, terror of demons, pray for us!
