Twenty-Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

Prayer for the Morning

*Christ's love reaches to heaven; his truth to the skies:
let us give thanks and praise! Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia

Hymn Meter: LM

Though I may speak with bravest fire,
And have the gift to all inspire,
And have not love, my words are vain
As sounding brass, and hopeless gain.
Though I may give all I possess,
And striving so my love profess,
But not be giv'n by love within,
The profit soon turns strangely thin.
Come, Spirit, come, our hearts control,
Our spirits long to be made whole.
Let inward love guide every deed;
By this we worship, and are freed.

Psalms 36:2-7

Above all, let your love for one another be intense, because love covers a multitude of sins. (1 Pt 4:8)

The greatest demand love makes on us is that we help one another into the Kingdom of God. Sometimes love requires us to speak a painful word of truth to awaken someone blinded by sin, -recognizing that we ourselves are also sinners. Let us do for one another what we would have others do for us.

Sin speaks to the sinner in the depths of his heart.
There is no fear of God before his eyes.
He so flatters himself in his mind that he knows
not his guilt.
In his mouth are mischief and deceit.
All wisdom is gone.
He plots the defeat of goodness as he lies on his bed.
He has set his foot on evil ways, he clings to what is evil.
Your love, Lord, reaches to heaven; your truth to the skies.
Your justice is like God's mountain, your judgments like the deep.

Glory to the Father...

Word of God

James 5:19-20

My brothers, if anyone among you should stray from the truth and someone bring him back, he should know that whoever brings back a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

Let us then pursue what leads to peace and to building up one another. (Rom 14:19)

Canticle of Zechariah

You yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to admonish one another.

(Rom 15:14)

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; he has come to his people and set them free. He has raised up for us a mighty savior, born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets he promised of old that he would save us from our enemies, from the hands of all who hate us. He promised to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham:
to set us free from the hands of our enemies, free to worship him without fear, holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life. You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way, to give his people knowledge of salvation by the forgiveness of their sins. In the tender compassion of our God the dawn from on high shall break upon us, to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide
our feet into the way of peace.

Glory to the Father...

Intercessions

In love we pray:

R/Hear us, O Lord!

When sin blinds the heart, – open our eyes by the light of your Word, we pray: R/

When sin divides us, – reconcile us in your peace,
we pray: R/

When sin entraps us, – free us through the love of those around us, we pray: R/

Personal intentions

Our Father....

God of love beyond all telling, pour into our hearts the light of love made visible in the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, that we may fill the whole earth with his truth and his love through our charity toward one another. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Twenty-Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

Ezekiel 33:7-9

Thus says the Lord: You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel; when you hear me say anything, you shall warn them for me. If I tell the wicked, "O wicked one, you shall surely die," and you do not speak out to dissuade the wicked from his way, the wicked shall die for his guilt, but I will hold you responsible for his death. But if you warn the wicked, trying to turn him from his way, and he refuses to turn from his way, he shall die for his guilt, but you shall save yourself.

Reading 2

Romans 13:8-10

Brothers and sisters: Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; you shall not kill; you shall not steal; you shall not covet," and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law.

Gospel

Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus said to his disciples: "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that 'every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses.' If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church. If he refuses to listen even to the church, then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector. Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again, amen, I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

Men of St. Joseph Prayer

St. Joseph, help me to be like you. Help me to be obedient to the teachings of the Church and faithful to God's commands. Help me to patiently endure my cross each day. Let me be a model of holiness and a pillar of virtue. I solemnly promise to embrace God's will and I accept the challenge to work tirelessly for my family's salvation. Be my guide and companion on this journey. St. Joseph, terror of demons, pray for us!
